

zlien*: Benefits for Office Managers

Office managers around the country use zlien to easily manage lien rights. Eliminate the frustrating paperwork and legal guesswork associated with exchanging lien waivers, sending notices, and managing lien compliance. With zlien, office managers can secure payment while saving time.

zlien* makes office managers better at their jobs.

Show your boss how zlien will empower you to skip tedious tasks and work on what matters.

Save time wasted preparing notices.

Notices are an important part of securing payment on construction projects. zlien sends unlimited notices with just a few clicks. All you have to do is enter the project information, and zlien makes sure the notice is sent quickly and accurately.

Speed up payment and eliminate bad debt.

Not only does sending notice secure lien rights, it speeds up the payment process. Notifying top-of-chain parties of your company's involvement on a project prioritizes your invoice and helps build good relationships with customers.

Never research lien rights again.

Lien laws are complex and nuanced. Every state has different rules and requirements when it comes to sending notices and meeting deadlines. zlien knows all the rules and notifies you when required documents are due. All you have to do is click send.

zlien* makes lien rights easy for office managers

zlien is a one-stop shop. Office managers use the zlien platform to sign and send lien waivers with confidence, to prepare notices accurately and send them on time, and to make sure their company gets paid on every project - all with just a few clicks.
