As part of your construction contract, your Prime Contractor has already advised you that those who furnish labor or materials for the construction work on your property will be identifying themselves to you.

The above-named Subcontractor, undersigned, first furnished labor and/or materials on the above-identified Date, for the construction on your Property located as described and identified above.

Please give your mortgage lender a copy of this Notice within ten (10) days after you receive it, so your lender, too, will know that the undersigned is included in the work.

This notice is given for the purposes of identification, and is not a claim to you or to your lender for payment.
